

Bear

and

Bud

To my boys, whom I love so much, Jeremy and Patrick Bennett, who gave me great memories, but also great scares.

Years later, having grandchildren now, I could only hope that their children give them memories and scares as they did to me!

Parents, enjoy the small and big things that your children accomplish, they are only little once and they grow so fast.

Below is my favorite picture of my boys, taken at Grandpa and Grandma's cottage
